

Sherley Haratz

Fluent in Spanish, English, and Hebrew, Ms. Haratz is an attorney in the United States and Panama and a founding partner of the law firm of Haratz & Stubbe, LLC. She represents clients facing U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, U.S. embassies and consulates, and the Immigration Courts.

With a focus in immigration, Ms. Haratz brings her experience in multiple jurisdictions providing her with an international outlook in dealing with international clients and providing strategic solutions for them. Ms. Haratz represents her clients in the preparation and filing of immigrant visa petitions, obtaining legal permanent residency, family based petitions and employment based petitions for professional, multinational executives, and individuals with extraordinary ability. Ms. Haratz also represents clients for their non-immigrant visa applications such as treaty investors (E-2) and traders (E-1), professionals (H-1B), individuals with extraordinary ability (O-1), investors and visas for multinational managers and executives (L-1).

Ms. Haratz experience includes having been a volunteer and legal assistant at Florida Immigrant Advocacy Center, now known as Americans for Immigrant Justice, where she assisted victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, human trafficking and other violent crimes and abuses. She was also worked in-house at the legal department of E. D.& F. MAN in New York City; and has been Panama's legal advisor to the United Nation's International Maritime Organization in London.

Ms. Haratz holds a J.D. from St. Thomas University, School of Law, Miami, Florida and from Universidad Santa Maria La Antigua, Panama, Panama, where she graduated cum laude. Additionally, she has a Masters of Laws (LLM) in Maritime Law from the London School of Economics, London, United Kingdom. Ms. Haratz has been a member of the Florida Bar since 2009 and is an attorney in good standing in Panama since 1995.

Some of Ms. Haratz other interests include volunteering for JCS Shalom Bayit Domestic Abuse Prevention Program, The American Israel Public Affairs Committee, the Anti-Defamation League, and the Greater Miami Jewish Federation.